Guidelines for Pre-Entry Tuberculosis Screening

1. Background

- Tuberculosis (TB) remains a public health concern in Japan, with ~10,000 new cases and ~1,500 deaths annually.
- Foreign-born TB cases are increasing, accounting for 1,619 of 10,096 new cases in 2023.
- To mitigate this, Japan introduces pre-entry TB screening for long-term residents from high-risk countries.

2. Legal Basis

- TB is classified as a Category II Infectious Disease under Japanese law.
- Foreigners with active TB are denied entry under the Immigration Control Act.
- Applicants for long-term visas must submit a "TB Non-Infection Certificate" to prove they are TB-free.

3. Target Countries & Exemptions

- Target Countries: Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia, Nepal, Myanmar, and China.
- Target Groups: Long-term residents (excluding re-entry permit holders) and specific visa categories (e.g., digital nomads).
- Exemptions:
  - Current residents of non-target countries.
  - Certain programs (e.g., JET, JICA trainees, EPA nurses/caregivers, embassy-sponsored students).

4. Screening Process

- Certificate Issuance:
  - Must be issued by a Japanese government-approved medical institution in the target country.
  - Follows Japan's "Pre-Entry TB Screening Manual."
- Timing:
  - Submitted during Certificate of Eligibility (COE) applications or visa applications at embassies.
  - COEs may note "TB Certificate Not Submitted," requiring later submission.

5. Implementation Schedule

Tuition and other educational fees are subject to change.

The tuition, facilities fee and Parents' Association fee are billed over 2 semesters.

If for unavoidable reasons you decide not to enter the University, please inform the Admissions Office by noon, March 28, 2026, using the designated form. With the exception of the entrance fee, all tuition and fees will be refunded (minus any related bank transaction fees).

Study Abroad Fee

In addition to the fees listed above, Study Abroad fees will be required in the second year, as the curriculum requires all second year students to participate in study abroad in the fall semester. The total fees vary depending on the site and the exchange rate. International students, as an exception, are allowed to choose the On-Campus program which costs no extra fees.

*The Study Abroad Hybrid Program (about two months' study abroad) would cost almost 60% of the cost stated above.

Scholarship

Miyazaki International University

All international students will receive a 50% waiver for the 250,000 JPY admission fee and a 40% waiver for tuition and facilities fees. Tuition for October 2025 and April 2026 enrollment will be 255,000JPY per semester. Scholarships in subsequent academic years will vary 20% to 50% in accordance with academic performance. Academic performance will be reviewed at the end of each year to determine eligibility and continuation of the scholarship. To receive the scholarship in the following academic year, students must have completed 80% or more of the maximum allowed credits for the previous year and meet the following standards for GPA: 2.5 (20%); 3.0 (30%), 3.5 (40%), 3.8 (50%). If the GPA falls below 2.5, the scholarship will be revoked.

Japan Student Service Organization (JASSO)

Eligible students will be recommended for the Reservation Program for Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students. Selected students will be paid the monthly amount determined for the school year. (The amount is subject to change each year. For reference, the monthly stipend for the 2025 school year is JPY48,000.) MIU will assist in the application process once students complete enrollment procedures. Students need to pay tuition and fees in advance. Please check the JASSO website for details (<http://www.jasso.go.jp/en/>).

Staff available for consultation

Weekdays: 09:00 – 17:00

Closed on Saturdays, Sundays and national holidays.

Fax: 81-985-84-3396 if you are abroad 0985-84-3396 if you are in Japan

Regarding Visa Application Procedures

We recommend proceeding with applications well in advance. To obtain a student visa for Japan, you must first acquire a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the Immigration Services Agency of Japan.

[Application Process]

1. COE Application
  - The university will act as your proxy and submit the application to the Immigration Services Agency
  - The screening process may take up to 3 months
2. Visa Application
  - After receiving your COE, apply for a student visa at the Japanese embassy or consulate in your home country

[Important Notes]

- Need for Early Application
- Overseas applicants are recommended to submit their university application by the December entrance exam deadline
- Late applications may delay visa issuance and potentially affect your ability enter Japan before the semester begins.
- Possible Additional Documents
  - Applicants from Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia, Nepal, Myanmar, and China may need to submit a "Tuberculosis Non-Infection Certificate" starting in 2025
