Guidelines for Pre-Entry Tuberculosis Screening

1. Background

- Tuberculosis (TB) remains a public health concern in Japan, with ~10,000 new cases and ~1,500 deaths annually.
- Foreign-born TB cases are increasing, accounting for 1,619 of 10,096 new cases in 2023.
- To mitigate this, Japan introduces pre-entry TB screening for long-term residents from high-risk countries.

2. Legal Basis

- TB is classified as a Category II Infectious Disease under Japanese law.
- Foreigners with active TB are denied entry under the Immigration Control Act.
- Applicants for long-term visas must submit a "TB Non-Infection Certificate" to prove they are TB-free.

3. Target Countries & Exemptions

- Target Countries: Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia, Nepal, Myanmar, and China.
- Target Groups: Long-term residents (excluding re-entry permit holders) and specific visa categories (e.g., digital nomads).
- Exemptions:
 - Current residents of non-target countries.
 - Certain programs (e.g., JET, JICA trainees, EPA nurses/caregivers, embassy-sponsored students).

4. Screening Process

- Certificate Issuance:
 - Must be issued by a Japanese government-approved medical institution in the target country.
 - Follows Japan's "Pre-Entry TB Screening Manual."
- Timing:
 - Submitted during Certificate of Eligibility (COE) applications or visa applications at embassies.
 - COEs may note "TB Certificate Not Submitted," requiring later submission.

5. Implementation Schedule

Country	Screening Starts	Certificate Mandatory From
Philippines, Nepal	March 24, 2025 (planned)	June 23, 2025 (planned)
Vietnam	May 26, 2025 (planned)	September 1, 2025 (planned)
Indonesia, Myanmar, China	Under adjustment (TBA)	TBA

Scholarships

Miyazaki International University

All international students will receive a 50% waiver for the 250,000 JPY admission fee and a waiver for tuition and facilities fees. Tuition and facilities fees for October 2026 enrollment will be 336,000JPY per semester. Tuition and facilities fees for April 2027 enrollment will be 392,000 JPY per semester. Scholarships in subsequent academic years will vary in accordance with academic performance. Academic performance will be reviewed at the end of each year to determine eligibility and continuation of the scholarship. To receive the scholarship in the following academic year, students admitted in 2026 must have completed 80% or more of the maximum allowed credits and meet the following standards for cumulative GPA in the previous year: 2.5 (20%); 3.0 (30%), 3.5 (40%), 3.8 (50%). If the GPA falls below 2.5, the scholarship will be revoked. Students admitted from April 2027 must meet the following standards for cumulative GPA in the previous year: 3.0 (30%), 3.5 (40%), 3.8 (50%). If the GPA falls below 3.0, the scholarship will be revoked.

Japan Student Service Organization (JASSO)

Eligible students will be recommended for the Reservation Program for Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students. Selected students will be paid the monthly amount determined for the school year. (The amount is subject to change each year. For reference, the monthly stipend for the 2026 school year is JPY48,000.) MIU will assist in the application process once students complete enrollment procedures. Students need to pay tuition and fees in advance. Please check the JASSO website for details (<http://www.jasso.go.jp/en/>).

Visa Application Procedures

We recommend proceeding with applications well in advance. To obtain a student visa for Japan, you must first acquire a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from the Immigration Services Agency of Japan.

[Application Process]

1. COE Application
 - The university will act as your proxy and submit the application to the Immigration Services Agency
 - The screening process may take 3 or more months
2. Visa Application
 - After receiving your COE, apply for a student visa at the Japanese embassy or consulate in your home country

[Important Notes]

- Need for Early Application
 - Overseas applicants should submit their university application by the November entrance exam deadline.
 - Late applications may delay visa issuance and potentially affect your ability enter Japan before the semester begins.
- Possible Additional Documents
 - Applicants from Philippines, Vietnam, Indonesia, Nepal, Myanmar, and China may need to submit a "Tuberculosis Non-Infection Certificate" starting in 2025.

OVERALL INSTRUCTIONS

Write at least 100 words for each question. Avoid general statements. We are interested in what you have actually done, not what students in general should do.

ANSWER BOTH QUESTIONS 1 & 2

1. Academic Interest

Describe one topic you have recently become interested in. Explain how you became interested, what you have done to learn more about it, and one question about this topic that you still cannot answer.

2. Future Plans

Imagine that you graduate from our university. Describe a specific situation in your future where you will use something you learned here. What will you do, and what knowledge or skill from your studies will you use?
