グローバルスカラシップ・Global Scholarship

Miyazaki International College selects international students whose financial situation makes it difficult to study and who have the best grades as scholarship students to provide international students with opportunities to study and an environment where they can concentrate on their academic pursuits.

1. Definition of international students

An international student is a person whose status of residence is "College Student" (including those who are in the process of changing their status of residence to "College Student") and who is neither a government-sponsored international student or an international student dispatched by a foreign government.

2. Students eligible for this system

- (1) Students whose financial situation (sudden change in household finances) makes it difficult to study at MIC
- (2) The student with the best grades among international students

3. Types of scholarships, scholarship amount, period, number of awards

- (1) Financial aid: 300,000 yen tuition waiver (lump-sum-applied to tuition), per semester, two students
- (2) Academic Excellence: 50,000 yen stipend (monthly), per semester, one student

4. Term of availability of the system

3 years from 2021 to 2023
