

Dynamics between Korea and Japan and Peace in Northeast Asia

Lecturer

Consul General of The Republic of Korea in Hiroshima

H.E. Dr. Sunpyo Kim

The relationship between Korea and Japan is an important cornerstone of peace and stability in Northeast Asia. However, the relationship is sometimes blurred with misunderstandings and contradictions. Dr. Kim will approach relevant issues through his analysis from the perspectives of theories of International Relations and International Law and look for cooperation for peace and stability in Northeast Asia.

November 27 (Fri), 4 PM to 6 PM

International Exchange Center Seminar Room
(on the junior college campus)
